Phone: (530) 749-7855

Vendor: Sequoia Voting Systems
Voting System: AVC Edge II / 400-C Optical Scan

Background

The purpose of this plan is to provide an avenue for public observation of the election process, obtain input into the election process, assist in ensuring the integrity of the election process and encourage participation and build voter confidence in the election process.

Events & Notification

Notice of the following events will be conspicuously posted at the Election Office at least 48 hours prior to their occurrence:

- Random Draw of 1% Manual Tally Precincts
- Pre Election Logic & Accuracy Testing

The following groups will be sent letters inviting them to participate:

- Political Party Central Committees
- Advocacy Groups
- Media (Print & Radio)
- Qualified Candidates

Other groups or individuals expressing an interest in observing Election Day activities may also be included in the observer panel.

Groups may also contact the Registrar of Voters to request an opportunity to ask questions about the process.

Appointment of Observer Panel

After all names of interested parties have been submitted to the Registrar of Voters, appointments to the Observer Panel will be made. Each individual appointed to the Observer Panel will be provided with the following:

- Introduction Letter – for panelist to use when visiting polling places on Election Day
- Listing of all Polling Places

- Central Count Information – to include site location and information regarding scheduled activities and hours of operation.
